PUBLIC INVITED TO REVIEW DRAFT COMMISSION STRATEGIC PLAN

The Federal Communications Commission announced today that the public is welcome to review and comment on a draft of its revised Strategic Plan for 2009-2014. The Commission is revising its Strategic Plan at this time in compliance with the requirements of the Government Performance and Results Act of 1993.

The revised draft Strategic Plan is a "work-in-progress" that is complete enough to allow review and comment on the strategic direction the Commission intends to follow in the coming years. Commenters are asked to focus specifically on:

1. The strategic direction proposed in the document as embodied in the general goals and objectives;
2. Providing additional contextual information not covered in the document's text; and
3. The means and strategies that the Commission should undertake to accomplish its goals.

Those wishing to review the revised draft plan can find it on the Commission's website at: <http://www.fcc.gov/omd/strategicplan>.

Comments should be sent to walter.boswell@fcc.gov no later than July 24, 2008.

Those wishing to submit comments through the U.S. Postal Service should send them to Federal Communications Commission, Strategic Plan Comments, Attention: Walter Boswell, 445 12th Street, S.W., Room 1-A105, Washington, DC 20554. Mailed comments should be sent significantly in advance of the July 24, 2008 deadline to ensure that they are received in time for consideration prior to Commission issuance of the revised Strategic Plan.
